How it all broke down... literally... a brief review...

Coming Apart over...	Northern extremists (radical Republicans, some moderate Republicans, and radical abolitionists)	Moderates (Northern "Peace" Democrats, pro-Union Southerners, Some moderate Republicans)	Southern extremists and sympathizers (including Northern copperheads)
Slavery is...	A wicked sin that must be abolished at once, before Christ's return!	Maybe good, maybe bad, but definitely not worth getting killed over...	An inalienable right, sanctioned in the Bible and supported in the Constitution and an integral part of the Southern economy...
Possible remedies include...	Remedy? We said abolish it! And no, we won't pay for a buyout!	The government could spend billions to buy out slave owners... maybe return slaves to Africa... or maybe just let the states solve the issue in their own time...	Meddling Yankees could mind their own (bleep) business.
Future expansion...	Cannot include any new slave states, period.	Should adhere to the original 36° 30' border laid out in 1820	Should include slave states even if they are above 36° 30' if voters choose to have it.
Tariffs on imports...	Are critical to encourage industry by protecting against British dumping of surplus goods which will ruin the Northern economy.	Should probably be repealed or lowered to avoid provoking foreign counter-tariffs and southern rebellion	Are a Yankee industrialist plot to provoke foreign tariffs on cotton exports and ruin the Southern economy.
States' rights...	Don't include the right to secede (and we won't allow slavery to spread).	Allow slavery in new states if the people vote for it, but not secession.	Allow slavery in new states and allow secession.
Secession is...	Treason!	Tragedy!	A Second American Revolution!
